

The Washington, D.C. Chapter of the Indiana University Alumni Association
Board Meeting
January 13, 2009
Mackey's Public House, Arlington, VA

Attendees: Rob Jentgens, Jim Trilling, Nikki White, Rich Leopold, Jennifer Leopold, John Kendrick, Brian Russell, Patrick Hayden, Larry Hsia, and Stephen Bates.

President's Report

- The chapter is discussing the possibility of Hoosier men's basketball head coach Tom Crean meeting with the attendees of the Penn State game on Friday, Feb.27. Nikki is working in conjunction with Barry Gellers of the Metro N.Y. Chapter of the IUAA. So far, Bloomington has said if this doesn't work, perhaps a dinner in Washington, D.C. with coach Crean could be a possibility for the future.

Secretary's Report

- November's board minutes were approved.

Treasurer's Report

Account Balances and Transactions

- Currently have ~$600.

Old Business

Virginia license plates

- Time has elapsed on the Virginia license plates. An e-mail will be sent to applicants indicating we did not get enough signatures.
- The e-mail will give the option for people to donate their application fee to the chapter's scholarship fund.

Wreath laying

- While the weather for the wreath laying was cold, there were many participants on Dec. 13.
- Chapter invited members from Purdue and Ball State alumni clubs.

Holiday party

- Party on Dec. 13 was a huge success. Mackey's was taken over by the chapter.

New Business

Big Ten Inauguration Party

- Located at the Mansion on O Street.
- Event to be a champagne brunch and raffle for prizes.

Singing Hoosiers in Silver Spring, Md.

- Last-minute event scheduled for this Sunday (Jan. 18) afternoon. Tickets only $5.

Wizards tickets, Feb. 8

- About 18 tickets have been purchased so far. Chapter to make $2 per ticket sold.
- Ball State, Purdue, Notre Dame, and Indiana State alumni clubs have been contacted as game is being played vs. Indiana Pacers.

Team in Training Improv night

- Two shows on Feb. 21 at D.C. Improv to raise funds for IU alumnus Gregg Greenberg who is raising money for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.
- Tickets will cost $35.

Scholarship award

- Twenty names of applicants sent from Bloomington.

✓ Meeting adjourned unanimously.