IU Alumni Association memberships now tax deductible

Oct. 20, 2009

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. — The Indiana University Alumni Association recently announced that its annual and life membership dues are now 80 percent tax deductible as a charitable contribution. This policy is effective immediately for anyone who paid membership dues on or after Jan. 1, 2009.

For more information regarding tax-deductible membership dues, go to <http://alumni.indiana.edu/membership/taxfaq.shtml>.

The IU Alumni Association serves more than 528,000 living graduates around the globe. The IUAA connects alumni, students, and friends to Indiana University and each other through programs, services, and communications. For information, visit <http://www.alumni.indiana.edu/> or call (800) 824-3044.
